From a synopsis of proceedings intraished it appears that President Harrison reported on behalf of the road commissioners that a proposition had been made to them by the New Alexandria Improvement Company for a change in the county road through their property. An expression of opinion, was dety. An expression of opinion was desired from the club, as the farmers of the vicinity are directly interested in said road. The proposition as outlined seemed to be favorably received, and E. E. Mason, C. Lukens and A. H. Roberts were appointed to look into the matter and report results to the farmers volunteer their teams to haul gravel for a week or two on some of the roads free of charge on condition that the road commissioners furnish the men to do the shoveling. The idea seemed to be approved of, and one of the commissioners said that he would guarantee $100 worth of shoveling if tie teams would turn out on those con-
